

Notice Concerning Results of Early Retirement Program

TOKYO, Japan, January 30, 2018 - Japan Display Inc. ("JDI") today announced the results of a voluntary early retirement offer which was announced on August 9, 2017 as a part of a company structural reform plan.

I. Overview of offer of voluntary early retirement to employees in Japan

1. Number of employees expected to apply for early retirement:	240
2. Individuals eligible for voluntary early retirement:	Employees 50 years of age or older as of the date of retirement
3. Early retirement application period:	November 6, 2017 to January 12, 2018
4. Retirement date:	January 31, 2018 to March 31, 2018
5. Other:	Individuals taking early retirement will receive retirement packages in accordance with company policies and will also receive special retirement benefits. Further, assistance will be provided to those wishing support for reemployment.

II. Results of voluntary early retirement offer

Number of employees who accepted the offer of early retirement: 290

III. Outlook

JDI expects to book an extraordinary loss of approximately 2,500 million yen in the third quarter of FY 2017 (From October 1 to December 31, 2017) as a business structure improvement expense for this early retirement offer.

###